

The story of a precocious puppy dog – with original photography by Rosemary Carroll

Corneel the Cavalier

AS TOLD BY CORNEEL TO JANET YORK & ROSEMARY CARROLL

Presently, Janet York divides her time between training her Cavaliers in obedience, agility, canine freestyle and the conformation ring, and creating figurative sculptures of animals and people in a variety of mediums. Her former careers have included teaching grade school, nursing and practicing as a psychotherapist in marriage, family and sex therapy. All three of her dogs are pet certified to work in hospitals and nursing homes with both children and adults. At the time of this printing, her dog Corneel is the number one Cavalier King Charles Spaniel in the American Kennel Club, 1999. Janet has three children and one grandchild and lives in New York City.

Janet, her Cavalier Corneel and a bronze sculpture of Corneel she completed in 1999.

Rosemary Carroll, a native New Yorker, creates wall size portraits of individuals and families against the background of the Atlantic. Her photography studio overlooks the ocean in Bethany Beach, Delaware. She also specializes in magazine work in New York and on location here and abroad. Her photographs have been published in many magazines and books and may be seen on Hallmark Cards and Pridewood Calendars. Her personal appearances include Inside Edition, Larry King Live, Eye over Miami, Morten Downey Show and numerous other TV and radio shows. She and her husband reside in Bethany Beach, Delaware with five of their eight children. Her son Michael is the character "Mikey" in this book.

Janet York began studying sculpture at the Sculpture Center in New York City in 1988. Prior to her work in the arts, she was a registered nurse and then a practicing psychotherapist. She earned her B.A. in Psychology from Marymount Manhattan College and her M.A. in Health Education and Psychology from New York University.

Janet York began studying sculpture at the Sculpture Center in New York City in 1988. Prior to her work in the arts, she was a registered nurse and then a practicing psychotherapist. She earned her B.A. in Psychology from Marymount Manhattan College and her M.A. in Health Education and Psychology from New York University.

Rosemary and her husband, Bill

$27.50
($39.00 in Canada)

DEDICATION

*Love and hugs to Hans and Gerda for Corneel who is the inspiration for this book
and others to come.*

*Corneel the Cavalier is a country dog with kind neighbors, a windmill for a home...
and exciting dreams of fun and friendship.
But unexpected changes are in the wind for Corneel. Join this lively puppy in the first of a series of stories as he faces turmoil to discover his destiny in the big city.*

Later books in the collection will introduce children to many countries of the world as they travel with Corneel, the international canine champion. Discovery and delight abound in Corneel's next adventure, "My Life in the City."